One Voice Chorus

One Voice Chorus is a mixed-voice choir for gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, queer, and two-spirit singers and their allies. We are an auditioned choir with a wide-ranging repertoire: from classical to jazz, from madrigals to pop music, and more. Now in our seventh season, One Voice Chorus produces two main concerts each year in Calgary. We also lend our collective voice to community events and have sung in support of the Coming Out Monologues, the Alberta Rockies Gay Rodeo Association, HIV Community Link, Camp fYrefly, Knox United Church and the Unitarian Church of Calgary.

Artistic Director Jane Perry

Jane Perry is in her seventh season as Artistic Director of One Voice Chorus. She is also the Artistic Director of the Calgary Renaissance Singers & Players and the Music Director at the Unitarian Church of Calgary. As well, Jane is the Co-Artistic Director, with Jean-Louis Bleau, of the Unison 2018 Festival of Canadian queer choirs, to take place in Calgary at Mount Royal University from May 18 to 21, 2018. Jane is a classically trained pianist. She holds a Master of Music degree from the University of Ottawa in chamber music performance, and she was Artist in Residence at the Banff Centre in autumn 1998.

Jane is delighted that the Calgary arts scene have given her opportunities to moonlight as a jazz player and, increasingly frequently, as a harpsichordist.

One Voice Chorus Membership

One Voice Chorus is an auditioned choir that rehearses on Monday evenings at the Unitarian Church of Calgary. The audition is held to exhibit a prospective singers vocal range through scale exercises, and includes a prepared piece of the auditioner's choice, as well as a sight reading exercise.

Out Loud!

Saturday, April 14, 2018

St. Stephen's Anglican Church in the Beltline

One Voice Chorus renews its collaborative relationship with the renowned spoken-word artist Sheri-D Wilson in a concert that explores how we use words to make meaning, and the role that music can play in meaning-making. The performance will feature the premiere performance of a One Voice Chorus commissioned piece, with lyrics by Sheri-D Wilson and music by Toronto composer Edward Connell.
